Full Itinerary

Get lost in the Grampians where you hike on the bushland trails to experience some breathtaking scenery and encounter Australian wildlife in their natural habitats. In this Grampians tour, climb up to the Boroka Lookout and witness exceptional views. Stroll down the McKenzie Falls or Silverband Falls. Then chill out at the Jaws of Death or Balconies Views.

- Grampians National Park Tour

At 08:00 in the morning, begin the journey from Melbourne to the Grampians National Park. Located 235 kilometres west of Melbourne, the Grampians is an ancient mountain that is home to abundant Australian wildlife, lush vegetation, and rich Aboriginal history and culture. The mountain ranges are simply spectacular and the scenery amazing!

- Halls Gap

Head straight into the heart of the Grampians, the Halls Gap. Throughout the journey be always on alert. Watch out for various species of birds in the woodlands and open forests.

There are more than 200 avian species in the Grampians aside from 35 mammal species, 28 reptile types, and much more. Always on the lookout for wild animals such as the kangaroos, koalas, possums, and wallabies to name a few. See the beautiful wildflowers in spring among the over 800 native plant species.

- Brambuk Aboriginal Cultural Centre

Then visit the award-winning Brambuk Aboriginal Cultural Centre. Learn about everything Aboriginal and the natural environment of the Grampians. Know more about the 5000 years of history of the Aboriginal people and appreciate the richness of their cultural heritage, arts, and traditions. Listen to the stories and tales of the origins of Gariwerd, the local name for the Grampians.

- Grampians Guided Bushwalks

In the afternoon, spend some time in the "Jaws of Death" also known as the Balconies, the landscape scene that appeared in the Japanese anime "Princess Mononoke". Then we stroll down to the base of McKenzie Falls or Silverband Falls.

Enjoy the waterfalls and capture some images of the cascades against the rocks and the green vegetation. In this heavenly paradise on earth, experience the magic and the soothing music of the waterfalls, the fresh breeze passing through ancient trees, and the birds. Immerse yourself in the experience and calm your restless soul. Be refreshed and rejuvenated.

Reflect on the eventful day full of action, fun, and adventure. As the tour drives back to Melbourne, have a stopover for dinner along the way. (Dinner is at your own expense)
