Your Day

Visit one of the most spectacular World Heritage listed National Parks in the Blue Mountains Sunset Tour Sydney. Spanning across thousands of hectares of wilderness rainforest, canyons, sandstone escarpments and towering eucalyptus trees that creates a haze of blue vapour under the harsh Australian sun. You will be amazed and enlightened as your guide introduces you to native flora and fauna and the Aboriginal stories from the region.

After a long bushwalk enjoy a relaxing lunch (included) before making your way to view the incredible Jamison Valley and the iconic Three Sisters. Enjoy the sun setting over this serene vista, and then have your camera ready for our Australian Wildlife that begins to show itself at dusk. Relax as you return to the city with memories of a lifetime.

- See Wildlife
First stop en-route to the Blue Mountains is Euroka Campgrounds for your picnic lunch. Enjoy Gourmet Sandwiches with cured meats freshly sourced from Con's Continental Deli in Glenbrook. After lunch, your tour guide will show you how to get close to wild Eastern Grey Kangaroos grazing on the lush vegetation.
- Guided Bushwalks
Enjoy an eco-guided walk with fabulous lookout points and surrounds whilst learning of the significance of this area for the indigenous people. A medium level of fitness is required to be able to walk along undulating trails.
- Blue Mountains Sunset Tour
Breathe in the fresh air walking along the National Pass and wonder at the dramatic landscape which shapes Wentworth Falls. Explore every vantage point of the world-famous Three Sisters formation. Witness the incredible views over the Jamison Valley escarpment. Katoomba, a major town in the area, borders Blue Mountains National Park and its bushwalking trails. Visit Echo Point and many other famous lookouts watching the sunset over the Blue Mountains.
