Pamagirri Aboriginal Experience

Duration: Pamagiri Dance Performance 30 minutes (approx.), Dream Time Walk 30 minutes (approx.)

Australia's Indigenous culture is one of the oldest surviving cultures in the world and Rainforestation Nature Park recognises the importance of preserving and sharing this unique culture.

Local indigenous Pamagiri guides welcome you to join them on a journey to discover the Dreamtime and learn about the fascinating customs and ancient traditions that are kept alive in the rainforest of Kuranda, in Tropical North Queensland.

The Pamagiri Aboriginal Experience takes approximately 1 hour which includes both the Pamagiri Aboriginal Dance Show held in the Rainforest Amphitheatre and the Dreamtime Walk conducted either before or after the show.

• Pamagirri Dance Performance

The rainforest amphitheatre provides a beautiful backdrop for the Pamagiri Dance Performance; a traditional dance performance depicting aspects of Indigenous culture including animals, food gathering and hunting.

The rainforest serves as the theatre walls whilst sounds of wildlife provide accompaniment to the haunting sounds of the didgeridoo and clapsticks. Be sure to watch closely – there's a surprise for the audience at the end!

The amphitheatre is wheelchair accessible, and has a large protective canopy and tiers of comfortable wooden seats with the capacity for four hundred people. The dance programme is available in fourteen different languages.

• Dreamtime Walk

Take a guided tour along an all-weather walk-way modelled on the Rainbow Serpent which gives you a fascinating insight into aspects of aboriginal culture. Try your hand at boomerang throwing, observe spear-throwing and hear your Pamagiri Guide play the didgeridoo, an ancient instrument. Listen carefully for sounds imitating Kangaroos or the Kookaburra. You can then take the Pamagiri Rainforest Walkabout to further enhance your indigenous experience.
