• OVERVIEW •

Tropical Fruit World Farm Tour

More than a tourist attraction, and more than a commercial farm, Tropical Fruit World is a labor of love, a fruit farm of inimitable value. Complete with a Biological Sustainable Horticulture philosophy, this family owned heritage business takes seriously their custodianship of the land as they seek to educate, share and unlock nature's secrets with visitors, community and family alike. Since 1983, Tropical Fruit World (formerly Avocadoland) has trail blazed in linking fruit farming with tourism. Set amongst rainforest, water catchments and the rolling volcanic mineral soil from the caldera of Mount Warning, this working fruit farm is situated in the prime environment to grow over 500 fruits from right throughout the world. The Tropical Fruit World brand encompasses guided tours and tastings, a farm owned fruit market Plantation Markets, and a regional dining and event venue Plantation House, coupled with a unique collection of skincare and food products The Plantation Collection.

Tropical Fruit World Farm Tour

More than 500 fruits from all around the World are grown here on this 200 acre family farm, and every season brings exotic, unusual and delicious fruit varieties for you to discover. You'll see, taste and learn about them when you climb aboard a tractor train and explore the plantation on a fully guided tour:

- You'll journey through the orchards by tractor train on our Plantation Safari
- Relax and enjoy our waterways on a Wildlife Boat Cruise
- Meet farm animal friends, kangaroos and emus in our Fauna Park
- Sample and learn about our seasonal fruits during your Fruit Tasting Session

Your ticket includes all activities and tour duration is approximately 2.5. Tour activities begin every hour or so, with the last full tour opportunity for the day departing at around 13:00.
